Lesson 12 Part 2 Re-Cap | 10/02/2022 | The “Wow” Factor

Where is your faith: The “Wow” Factor

“But without faith it is impossible to please God: For she that cometh to God must believe that he is a rewarder of them that diligently seek him.” Heb 11:6

For we walk by faith and not by sight 2 Cor 5:7

*****

*God is God all by himself and has chosen you to praise him
How can we not praise the God who chose to love us?*

I. The Wow Factor

- ♥ This Christian life is a walk of faith
- ♥ Wow- is used to express wonder and amazement; it's a spontaneous reaction to someone or something it is an expression
- ♥ Wow- Walking on Water factor (definition for the sisterhood class)
- ♥ Walking with God is a continuous process because we walk by faith and not by sight
- ♥ God is the light of the world and as long as you walk with him you will experience the newness of life.
- ♥ The word must become living in you in order for you to walk on the waters of your life.
- ♥ Don't allow yourself to be bogged down by the cares of life; God wants you to cast all your cares so you can walk on the lightly
- ♥ The Duck mentality
  - A duck is a land and water animal; it moves gracefully in the water despite the storms. Ducks possess a gland that is an oily substance that makes their feathers detact the water that gets on them. That oil allows them to float on the water where other animals would drown.
- ♥ Sistar, you have to be like the duck filled with the oil of the Holy Spirit; the Holy spirit allows you to float on top of your problems

Lesson 12 Part 2 Re-Cap | 10/02/2022 | The “Wow” Factor

- Ducks have hollow bone structures that allows them to be safe and protected.
- ♥ Sistar remember your bone structure is the foundation of God through his Holy word.
- ♥ When you go through the waters(troubles) of life you have the bone structure that is needed.

II. The Way Prepared

- ♥ There is a prepared way for all of us that call ourselves Christians
- ♥ The Bible wouldn't tell you to go through trials if a path had not been prepared already for you!
- ♥ There is something in the waters of life; you must believe that there is something in the water that will allow you to walk through the water
- ♥ Your faith is in the who; Believe in the who has prepared you for the what that prepares you for the when
- ♥ The lessons in life have to be applied; if you do not apply what you have learned you will continue to go through the same thing until the lesson has been learned
- ♥ If God tells you something, you can believe it and follow through with what he says.
- ♥ You are already in God's hands; he is a God of prevision and provision
- ♥ God already knows what is instore for you, so he has prevision, He has already provided which is why he gives you provision
- ♥ Understand you are never alone, and that God is never going to leave you!
- ♥ You are called for his calling and his purpose! You will get to the other side because God has already said so
- ♥ If God says it; you can rest assured and be able to say “Wow”

III. God of the Waterway

- ♥ Being a Christian doesn't mean that you will not go through anything in life. God knows what you need in life because he is the God of all

Lesson 12 Part 2 Re-Cap | 10/02/2022 | The “Wow” Factor

- ♥ Once you start walking in the light of the word of God the stronger you will become. Keep the duck mentality and allow the oil of the Lord to cover you.
- ♥ Remember that God is the way; the way has been prepared because of the who that is in the water.
- ♥ God knows the way you are walking because he is directing you in that path as you go through the water know that there is something in the water that will under gird you.
- ♥ Don’t let fear deter you from going into the water realize you possess the “wow” factor
- ♥ Your level of faith determines you’re the power of your “wow” factor; it is what allows you to walk through the water
- ♥ Your vertical relationship already determines your ability to overcome your watery trials
- ♥ Don’t say you can’t when your obedience wins you can walk on the water(trials) your obedience is key to overcoming your faith.
- ♥ Don’t say you can’t when God says you can! Be strong in the Lord and the power of his might.
- ♥ Trust and obey the promises and truth that comes from only the Lord
- ♥ When Job was going through his storms and trials, he had a moment of having to trust his faith.
- ♥ During Job’s trials he was concerned with the “why”; Have you ever asked God why?
- ♥ Even when you don’t know the why you can trust the who from which your faith is in.
- ♥ When you ask God “why” sometimes he will respond back in a way that makes you reflect on the who not the why.
- ♥ It took 9 months of affliction before Job got a response from the Lord; 9months is the time it takes for life to develop. It takes 9months of trial and affliction for birth to happen.
- ♥ Job had to go through 9months of affliction in order for him to give birth to his new path that ushered him into his new truth

Lesson 12 Part 2 Re-Cap | 10/02/2022 | The “Wow” Factor

- ♥ The birthing process will allow you to see the truth in the “who=God” to whom you believe
- ♥ There is glory in the who not the what of things you must go through in order to increase your faith
- ♥ The Aseity of God
  - Aseity of God is the Self-sufficiency of God. God is independent he is eternal. He depends on no one and nothing. He is control of the past, present, and future. Nothing is in control of him. God does not have to ask permission, because he is the permission. He is the present and the future of all things that is to come.
- ♥ When God showed Job “the way” of life; Job’s eyes were opened he took his eyes of the boisterous waters of his trials and began to use his “wow” factor.
- ♥ Job began to utter thanks instead of contempt so he could change his focus; he realized there was something in the waters of his trials.
- ♥ Job found the way; the way of God because it’s perfect. He began to be okay with his circumstance and began to say “wow”
- ♥ When you go through your trials you can focus on your faith because you know the creator!
- ♥ You can find the path in the waters of life because you know the way you should go because of the God you serve.
- ♥ As you live this life sometimes you have to just say wow because you possess the power
- ♥ You are not in a win loose situation, but you are in a wow win set up.
- ♥ You know the creator of the water; and he has given you the tools and strength to overcome whatever is in the water that you must go through.

Your “wow” factor is what propels you to be able to win against the enemy every single time.

Wow!
