What a ride!

I've been fortunate to both witness many little pieces of history as a reporter, and manage newsroom responses to major historical events - like 9-11. Along the way I've worked with dozens - hundreds - of exceptional journalists and marketing and business pros.

Here in Jax, we re-invented ourselves and entire TV stations. I am honored to lead this exceptional team and will miss their energy, creativity and spark.

It's not so much "retiring" as it is just time to move on and do new things.

I am thankful for all those who have helped guide and mentor me along the way: Jeff Howlett, Brian Whittemore, Mark Effron, Jim Hefner, David Barrett, Suzanne Grethen, Marian Pitman, Bill Hoffman, Lorraine Simmons - all pushed me past my comfort zone.

So many others conspired creatively over the years. I am honored and thankful beyond words to you all. I'll be at my post till the end of the year-ish, then you can find me skiing until the snow melts.

Then it will be time to try and birth some brand new stuff. Stay tuned!
