Team KHOU –

Please join me in welcoming a new member to this incredible newsroom. As you know, we cast a wide net in our search for a great news leader to help you super serve the Houston community. Today I'm thrilled to share that search is complete. Tim Geraghty will be making the move to Texas!

Tim is currently the news leader at KSDK, our sister station in St. Louis. Chicago born and bred, over the course of his 26 years as a News Director, he's led newsrooms in Cincinnati, Sacramento, and a 24-hour news network in Orlando. In that time, he also grew his family. Tim is a proud husband, father to four daughters and now a grandfather!

On a personal note, Tim and I met more than 20 years ago. He was my introduction into big market local news, as the News Director at WTVJ in Miami when I began my career as a green writer 😊

His experience leading teams through extensive breaking news coverage, record-setting hurricanes, and impactful investigative journalism makes him an ideal fit for this role and for the important work you do every day serving Houston.

I also want to take a moment to share my deepest thanks to Wiley Post. As your interim News Director, Wiley has stepped up in a big way—leaning in to keep this train on the tracks, clearing hurdles, and making sure this newsroom kept moving forward. Wiley's leadership, steadiness, and commitment to this team have made a real difference during this transition, and I'm incredibly grateful.

Please give Tim a warm KHOU welcome.

Start those Tex-Mex and best of Houston BBQ recs coming!

Tim's first day on site will be March 26th.
