Subject: Announcing FOX Carolina's New News Director: Matt Stanley

Good Evening FOX Carolina Team,

It is my pleasure to announce that Matt Stanley is the new News Director at WHNS FOX Carolina.

Matt joins us from Gray Media's sister station, WMBF, in Myrtle Beach, SC where he was the News Director and Director of Local Content for the past five years. The WMBF Newsroom, under Matt's leadership, won multiple Regional Edward R. Murrow, Southeast Emmy, RTDNAC, SCBA Star and AP Awards. He is the reigning 2024 RTDNAC News Director of the Year for South Carolina and North Carolina.

Matt also worked in newsroom leadership roles at Gray's KSLA in Shreveport as Assistant News Director and WAFB in Baton Rouge, LA as Executive Producer of Investigations. He started with Gray as a News Producer at WSFA in Montgomery, AL. Matt is a graduate of Auburn University and Coastal Carolina University and is a decorated United States Marine Corps Veteran.

Also moving to Greenville with Matt will be his wife, Laura, and his daughter, Eliza. Matt's first day at WHNS will be February 3rd.

Please join me in welcoming Matt to the team!

Sincerely,

Bryce Caldwell
