KYLE CARMEAN PROMOTED TO VICE PRESIDENT OF NEWS AND CONTENT FOR FOX's WASHINGTON DC DUOPOLY

WASHINGTON, DC – Kyle Carmean has been promoted to Vice President of News and Content for WTTG FOX 5 DC and WDCA FOX 5 Plus, announced Sue Diviney, Senior Vice President and General Manager of the duopoly. Effective immediately, he will oversee all the editorial, business, and administration functions for the stations and their streaming offerings, reporting directly to Diviney.

In making the announcement, Diviney stated, "Kyle has been instrumental in the stations' success over the last decade. His innovative approach and creative vision will continue to lead our newsroom to future growth."

Carmean has been with the FOX Television Stations (FTS) for 20 years. He joined WTTG/WDCA in 2014 as Assistant News Director. Before that, Carmean spent 9 years as Managing Editor at WTXF FOX 29 Philadelphia. Prior to joining FTS, he was a Nightside Desk Manager for WJZ-TV 13 in Baltimore, MD. Carmean began his career in broadcasting as Producer then Bureau Chief for WBOC-TV in Dover, DE.

A graduate of the Kutztown University in Pennsylvania, he holds a Bachelor of Arts degree in Broadcast Journalism.

Carmean added, "I'm ready for the opportunity to lead this skilled team of journalists and content creators as we continue our commitment to meeting the changing needs of our viewers in a multiplatform world."

WTTG FOX 5 DC and WDCA FOX 5 Plus are part of the FOX Television Stations, which owns and operates 29 full power broadcast television stations in the U.S. These include stations located in nine of the top ten largest designated market areas (DMAs), and duopolies in 11 DMAs, including the three largest DMAs (New York, Los Angeles and Chicago). Of these stations, 18 are affiliated with the FOX Network. In addition to distributing sports, entertainment and syndicated content, our television stations collectively produce over 1,200 hours of local news every week. These stations leverage viewer, distributor and advertiser demand for the FOX Network's national content.
