Subject: WGBA Assistant News Director - Terry Wood

NBC 26 Team,

I am incredibly excited to announce that after an extensive search, Terry Wood will be joining NBC 26 as its next Assistant News Director.

Terry comes to Northeast Wisconsin with years of large-market experience as a producer, executive producer, and in his current role as News Director at KMID/ KPEJ in Odessa/Midland, TX. He has been an EP in both Las Vegas (AM) and Albuquerque (PM), and a producer in Boston, Las Vegas, Phoenix, and Los Angeles.

Terry is a storyteller and mentor at heart. I was drawn to him by his excitement for producing original, dynamic content and his motivation to help up-and-coming journalists grow and thrive. He is eager to dive into our Neighborhoods strategy and help us grow the station and our brand.

Originally from the Northeast United States, Terry moved away from the cold in 2007. I assured him winter in Wisconsin wasn't that bad.

Terry's first day at WGBA will be March 6. If you'd like to reach out to him ahead of time to give him an NBC 26 hello, his email is (redacted) and his cell is (redacted).

To each of you who has shown grace, patience, and absorbed extra responsibilities as the Assistant News Director search continued, a heartfelt thank you.

Ryan Scott
