I’m retiring from WBNS at the end of the year and will be exploring some other opportunities that get Nancy and I closer to family. Nancy is expected to finish chemo treatments next month and our daughter is expecting our first grandchild next month so I’m retiring from WBNS and looking for opportunities that get us closer to her on the West Coast. We’re eager to be around family especially now as soon to be first time grandparents.