WPTV Team,

I'd like to welcome Kathy Reynolds as our new news director, effective Tuesday, May 31.

In this role, Kathy will lead our news department in providing essential journalism, reflecting our diverse communities, and growing our audience across all platforms.

Kathy is currently news content director at WUSA9 in Washington, D.C. Previously, she held news director roles in Portland, Maine, Flint, Michigan, and Toledo, Ohio.

Under her leadership, the newsrooms garnered dozens of Emmy and Murrow Awards, including three regional wins for Overall Excellence and a national win for Innovation. Before becoming a news director, Kathy worked on-air as an investigative reporter.

Outside of work, Kathy loves an adventure and traveling to places where wildlife abounds. She and her husband Tim have five pets of their own and have fostered a dozen others.

At 1 p.m. you'll have an opportunity to welcome Kathy to WPTV on a Zoom call; the invite will be sent shortly.

Please join me in welcoming Kathy to our team.

Thanks, Bill
