Dear Colleagues,

I have decided to leave NBC and Telemundo Connecticut and this wonderful company I have been a part of for the past 28 years.

This was a very difficult decision to make, but the timing fell into place as our son, and only child, graduates from college in Vermont next month and moves back to Texas. I always tell staff that family comes first, and I've chosen to follow my own advice. Wherever our son ends up as he pursues his future, my husband and I want to be a short drive away. Yes, we are those parents. Fortunately, he likes having us around. I plan to look for another opportunity after my son settles in Texas.

My last day will be May 9 which gives us more than three weeks to start transitioning the station. Thank you for your hard work and your commitment to your immediate teams and our stations. Together, we've done lot of great work for our viewers, while having a great time.
