Jeremy Settle Named Director of Content for TEGNA Florida

TAMPA, FL (May 27, 2025) — WTSP, the TEGNA-owned (NYSE:TGNA) CBS-affiliate serving Tampa today announced that broadcast executive Jeremy Settle has been named director of content for TEGNA Florida, effective July 7, 2025. In this role, Settle will serve as news director for WTSP 10 Tampa Bay, and lead efforts to collaborate on multiplatform news and content with First Coast News, the TEGNA-owned NBC and ABC affiliates in Jacksonville.

Settle joins the Florida team from WGRZ, TEGNA's NBC affiliate in Buffalo, New York, where he has served as news director since 2022. During his time at WGRZ, Settle successfully led the station's news department, increasing WGRZ's market-leading position while significantly expanding its streaming capabilities and digital reach, and pioneering fresh storytelling techniques.

Prior to his role at WGRZ, Settle was news director at News 12 New Jersey, a regional cable news channel serving the suburbs of New York City. He has also held news director roles at WBRE/WYOU in Wilkes-Barre/Scranton, Pennsylvania, WCAV in Charlottesville, Virginia and held several positions at WUSA9, TEGNA's CBS affiliate in Washington, D.C.

"Jeremy brings extensive local news experience and a passion for excellence," said Tim Thomas, president and general manager of TEGNA Florida. "He'll lead our multiplatform efforts to deliver essential information during breaking news and severe weather, helping us deepen our community connection and remain Florida's trusted news source."

"In today's rapidly evolving media landscape, our mission to provide local news and content that keeps our viewers safe and informed, has never been more critical," Settle added. "I am looking forward to working with the team in Florida to deliver timely, accurate, best-in-class news, sports and weather across our streaming, digital and broadcast platforms."

Settle is a graduate of the University of Maryland with a Bachelor of Arts degree in Journalism.
