Clyde Harold "Doc" Holliday, a beloved husband, father, brother, uncle, and friend, passed away peacefully on April 13, 2026, in St. Louis, Missouri. He was 79 years old.

Born on May 17, 1946, in St. Louis, Missouri, Clyde was the son of Austin Holliday Sr. and Cleo Holliday. He graduated from St. Charles High School in 1964 and went on to attend Lincoln University. Clyde was a proud military veteran who served his country as a U.S. Army soldier during the Vietnam War, where he worked as an operating room technician—a role that reflected his dedication to helping others.

Clyde built a long and fulfilling career with Union Electric/AmerenUE, where he was a valued employee for many years. After retiring, he embraced life with enthusiasm and joy, dedicating his time to the hobbies and activities he loved most.

An avid golfer, Clyde spent countless hours on the greens during his retirement years. He had a deep appreciation for music and could often be found enjoying sports on television or firing up the grill for one of his legendary barbecues. Known for his great sense of humor and warm personality, Clyde delighted in hosting parties and bringing people together—a true testament to his generous spirit.

Clyde is survived by his devoted wife, Joyce Holliday; his brother, Art Holliday; and numerous nieces and nephews who cherished him dearly. He was preceded in death by his parents, Austin Holliday Sr. and Cleo Holliday; his son, Kevin Holliday; his brother, Austin Holliday Jr.
