

Please join us in welcoming Michael Krinzman to the team! Michael will be joining us on 2/17 as our Statewide Director of Digital. Michael most recently served as the Head of Content and Strategy for HSN in St Pete, Florida. Prior to that he spent most of his career in news serving as VP, Video Strategy for USA Today Network and Gannett. He also spent many years in local newsrooms as an Executive Producer and Managing Editor.

A few fun facts about Michael:

- He has a 70-pound Goldendoodle named Cooper. He likes to describe him as a goofy big bruiser with endless energy.
- He was born and raised in Miami where his favorite thing to do was play baseball. He played some college ball at Boston University.
- He's been in the same fantasy football league with the same friends since college and am already counting down the days until next season

And from Michael:

"I'm thrilled to join WTSP and First Coast News and work with such a talented team to shape the future of local journalism at TEGNA. I look forward to driving impactful content and pushing boundaries together. Incredibly excited for what's ahead!"
