I’ve been named the Director of News for the Gray Lafayette group.

The triopoly includes KATC (ABC) acquired from Scripps along with my two stations KADN (FOX) and KLAF (NBC) acquired from Allen. My first order of business is to take the now separate newsrooms and combine them into a joint operation that will program a large quantity of news across the stations in various dayparts.

It’ll represent an increase in live programming over what’s currently offered in the market.

And we’re maintaining jobs in this consolidation.
