Hi Rick.

Thank you for reaching out. It's true WREG and I have parted ways. Here's what I wrote the staff this morning:

"I want to let you know it has been the honor of my life serving the people of the Mid-South and working alongside you for the last twenty years.

You are a team of champions, and you prove it every day."

"Over the years we have celebrated births, rejoiced at weddings, and mourned the loss of people dear to us. I will cherish my time as part of this family, and even though I'm not in the newsroom any longer, we still can be connected."

Thank you, Rick!

All the best.
