Rick:

Just wanted to let you know that my brief tenure as ND at WWAY is coming to an end.

My wife (a very busy nurse anesthetist) and school-age kids need me back in Raleigh during this ongoing pandemic, so I'm handing the reins over to Marcy Cuevas after this Friday.

Marcy's a very capable managing editor, and former anchor, at WWAY who will not miss a beat as News Director.

No immediate future plans for now.

Big fan of the newsletter!
