WFXG FOX54 Names Stephanie Cathey News Director

Stephanie Cathey

AUGUSTA – The Lockwood Broadcast Group has announced the promotion of Stephanie Cathey to news director at WFXG FOX54 in Augusta, Georgia.

Stephanie was most recently managing editor at KAKE-TV, Lockwood's ABC station in Wichita, Kansas where she helped oversee the day-to-day operation of the newsroom as well as special projects.

Stephanie is a graduate of the University of North Florida in Jacksonville. She started her career at KTUU-TV in Anchorage, Alaska and worked as a producer at WHNT-TV in Huntsville, Alabama before moving to Kansas.

"Stephanie will be an outstanding leader for the FOX54 News Team and will bring the same journalistic integrity and enthusiasm to keep the CSRA informed that she embodied during her tenure in Wichita.  We look forward to continued growth under Stephanie's leadership," FOX54 General Manager Brad Hargrove said.

"Being a Southern girl from Jacksonville, Florida, it's been my dream to get back to the East Coast," Cathey said. "I am beyond thankful for this opportunity and can't wait to continue the success of FOX54."

Stephanie is excited to relocate with her husband and two boys to the CSRA.
