GLEN DACY NAMED VICE PRESIDENT OF NEWS CONTENT AND STREAMING FOR FOX CHICAGO DUOPOLY

CHICAGO – Glen Dacy has been named Vice President of News Content and Streaming for FOX's Chicago duopoly, which consists of WFLD FOX 32 and WPWR My50, announced WFLD and WPWR Senior Vice President and General Manager, Sheila Oliver. Effective September 9th, he will oversee all the editorial, business, and administration functions for the duopoly's news and media content creation across multiple platforms, reporting directly to Oliver.

In making the announcement, Oliver stated, "With decades of Chicago news experience, Glen is the perfect person to lead our news team with a fresh approach and clear vision of what our audience is seeking."

Most recently, Dacy worked with the CBS Network News Special Events Unit as a producer for the 2024 Democratic National Convention in Chicago. Prior to that, he spent the last decade as Supervising Producer covering Investigations, Breaking News and Special Events for CNN. Previously, Dacy held the role of producer for several outlets including "Rock Center with Brian Williams" on NBC News and ABC Network News. Before that, he served as a showrunner and senior producer for Kurtis Productions on A&E's "Investigative Reports." Dacy also spent time as Senior Producer for WFLD's "Good Day Chicago." Earlier in his career, he held roles at CBS Network News, WMAQ-TV in Chicago, KWWL-TV in Waterloo, IA and KCCI-TV in Des Moines, IA. A graduate of Drake University, Dacy holds a Bachelor of Fine Arts degree in Speech Communications.

Dacy added, "As a third generation Chicagoan, and a veteran of covering news from Chicago, I am proud to take the reins of the skilled team of journalists at FOX 32. This challenge comes at a fascinating time in our business, and I look forward to bringing the countless remarkable stories of our great city to life."

WFLD FOX 32 and WPWR My50 are part of the FOX Television Stations, which owns and operates 29 full power broadcast television stations in the U.S. These include stations located in nine of the top ten largest designated market areas (DMAs), and duopolies in 11 DMAs, including the three largest DMAs (New York, Los Angeles and Chicago). Of these stations, 18 are affiliated with the FOX Network. In addition to distributing sports, entertainment and syndicated content, our television stations collectively produce over 1,200 hours of local news every week. These stations leverage viewer, distributor and advertiser demand for the FOX Network's national content.
