

I am pleased to announce that Audrey Gruber will join News 12 as VP News effective December 21. Audrey is an award winning media executive with strong storytelling roots and significant experience as a network, cable and digital journalist. She comes to us from ABC where she has developed and produced specials for ABC News. She has also worked in management, executive producing and producing roles at CBS, NBC, CNN, the Dailymail.com, Al Jazeera, Fuse and Spectrum Networks.

As News 12's VP News she will work closely with news and corporate management at all levels in developing our daily, special and investigative content. Other areas she will specialize in include strategic planning, administrative affairs, recruiting, people and workflow development and diversity efforts. Her content and management guidance at all levels of News 12 will help shape the evolution of our brand.

Audrey is a graduate of Brandeis University with an MS in Journalism from Columbia University. She lives in Brooklyn with her husband Jeremy and her children Jonah and Caleb. Please join me in welcoming Audrey to the News 12 family.
