Newsroom,

On this Thanksgiving holiday, I'm grateful for you. Grateful for your courage, your heart, your professionalism. I am also grateful for the help that came to our aid from our Gray colleagues today and in the days to come. I'm grateful for the support that is pouring into our newsroom from our Gray family, from the greater Charlotte community, and from people in our industry. I have felt the love, I'm leaning on those kind words, and I feel their prayers. We have so many people lifting us up in prayer and love. Know that.

I'm also grateful for the time we all had with Jason and Chip. We are honoring their memory and their family in such beautiful ways throughout our coverage.

We have more hard days to come. And we will take them day by day, together. Please take care of yourselves. Keep checking in with each other.

I'm in town but I'm going to step away for a few days to give myself some needed time. I'm so grateful that KMOV News Director Scott Diener has come to assist. Scott is around the newsroom tonight and will be around for tomorrow. Here is his contact information... (Connect info redacted)
