

Cj Hoyt

Yesterday at 1:01 PM · 🌐

LIFE ANNOUNCEMENT:

I've accepted the News Director position at WXIN/WTTV, the FOX/CBS duopoly in Indianapolis. My first day there will be on or about March 23rd.

You try to map out your life, but it never goes as planned. I never would have thought I'd be coming home to run a station... and I never thought Indianapolis would be next on the list.

This is a huge and exciting opportunity for me. It's easily the biggest newsroom I've ever run and it's one of the largest TV operations in all of Nexstar. I want to thank Nexstar for believing in me and giving me the kind of opportunities I wasn't sure I would ever have.

Leaving home is not going to be easy, but I'm proud of how our station has covered this area and how I've pushed our station to expand more heavily into York County.

I still have another few weeks here, and I plan to make the most of it!