Hello everyone...

Nancy Valenta rang me today with the news Carol Breshears' died yesterday. Carol was the long-time assignment manager/planning editor at KTTV, prior to that executive producer at KFWB and news director at KEYT-Channel 3-Santa Barbara.

Nancy has provided me with the following note... asking that it be shared with all of you:

Dear Friends,

The Southern California news community has lost one of its most respected journalists.

I am sad to report Carol Breshears passed away Sunday of complications after a stroke.

Carol had a tremendous impact on the success of the KTTV newsroom. Through her work at KTTV and with RTNA, Carol touched so many in newsrooms throughout Southern California and beyond. Journalism's highest standards, exceptional storytelling, compassion and kindness are Carol's legacy.

Carol's family is planning a memorial service and I will pass along details when they become available.

Be well,
Nancy Valenta

Like many of you know, I thought so much of Carol... as a person and as a professional. She was as dedicated to our craft as anyone I've ever met. As Nancy indicates, I will pass along funeral information as soon as I have it. It's likely to be held at her church in San Pedro.
