My name is Tom Cusimano. Ray Cole passed along your info. My father, Charlie Cusimano was in broadcasting beginning in college in 1966 through his retirement in 2020. Sadly he passed suddenly at 75 years old on 8/22/24.

Ray said I should reach out to you with a short obituary and photo to share on your newsletter.

Would this work?

Let me know. Thanks so much!

Charles Cusimano died suddenly on August 22nd, 2024, he was 75 years old.

Born in Brooklyn, NY, Charles was graduate of Brooklyn Tech and then went to Union College. It was at Union College where he fell in love with broadcasting, at the schools station WRUC. Following Union, Charles moved to Burlington, VT to become the morning radio DJ at WDOT (under the name Charlie Cunningham), then a Sales Executive & Manager at WVNY TV. Following Vermont, he went on to become Sales Manager at WWNY (Watertown, NY), Sales Executive at WWSB (Sarasota, FL) and then VP/GM of SNN-TV (Sarasota, FL) Charles retired from SNN in January 2020. Charles loved to travel, golf, ski, go to concerts and enjoy the very best wine and pizza! His life was filled with the love of his wife of 48 years, Mary, their two sons, Michael (died 2018) & Thomas and grandsons, Henry & Oliver. He will be deeply missed by all who knew him!

Sincerely,
Tom Cusimano
