

Life alert: I guess you really can go home again.

I've spent the majority of my life in Western Washington and I'm happy to announce I'm going back to Seattle to work alongside the team at Q13 (KCPQ) as News Director.

I can't express to you how humbled and honored I am for this opportunity. It truly is a dream job. It's funny that when you get older and make big changes, you start to really reflect on how you got to where you are. Some days, I don't even know. (insert old jokes here)

I do know this. I'm so lucky to have worked alongside by some of the very best in this crazy industry I love so much. Without them, this responsibility and privilege wouldn't be possible. To all of you whom I've crossed paths with during my broadcasting journey, thank you.

Now, where's my rain jacket?
