Oklahoma Program for Continuing Education in Social Work

On-Line Book Club in Social Work and the Helping Professions

Five Continuing Education Credits for each book

The On-Line Book Club in Social Work and the Helping Professions recognizes the importance of professionals staying abreast of new ideas, concepts, and findings to advance their practice and their understanding of social issues. The book club occurs on the last Friday for each of the months listed below. We are offering 7 book club sessions this year. The cost is $45.00 per session. Book club meetings occur by conference call from 10:00 AM to 11:00 AM Central Standard Time (CST) and are moderated by a member of the faculty, or Alumni of the University of Oklahoma Anne and Henry Zarrow School of Social Work. To receive continuing education credit participants must complete a brief assessment of their reading, and an evaluation for each session. You will receive five continuing education credits for each session. You must register to participant in the book club. Please click on the title of the book to register. All texts below are available at Amazon.com or check with your local library.
