

Keep on loving one another as brothers and sisters.
Hebrews 13:1

BRIGHT SPOT

Thank you to those that attended our Society meeting! It is always an important night for our school. Our 8th grade students shared an informative presentation about their greenhouse accomplishments and hopes for the future. They did a great job and were a bright spot in our night!

A NOTE FROM OUR COUNSELOR, MRS. VANWIENEN:

Robyn Gobbel is an expert in children with “Big Baffling Behaviors”. She has written a book by that title that I highly recommend. She is leading a webinar on the evening of March 24 called “Sensory Strategies for Dysregulated Kids: A webinar for parents, caregivers, educators, or professionals supporting a child whose behaviors can feel confusing, overwhelming or intense.”

Sign up for this webinar can be found on her website roblyngobbel.com under the tab “Upcoming Trainings”. If you can’t listen live, she will email you the recording to listen to when it works for you.

TECH BYTE

Today's risks are so much greater than the risks most of us experienced as kids. So you need different questions to ask when your child spends time at a friend's house. Protect Young Eyes offers parents three tech questions to ask to help keep your child safe.
