

Manuel "Manny" Schönhuber

Based in Texas, Manny is a native German and focuses his legal practice on counseling and representing German and other European companies in the U.S. He assists his clients with all aspects of the market entry stage and acts as their outside General Counsel. Manny also assists with his clients' representation in state and federal court as well as arbitration proceedings throughout Texas. Manny received his Juris Doctor from the University of Houston Law Center and his Bachelor in Management summa cum laude from Saint Leo University, Florida.