Youth Social Media & Content Creator Volunteer Position Description

Do you have a creative flair? Are you curious about your faith?

Would you like to combine the two passions together?

If so, you may want to consider volunteering for our Youth Ministry Content Creator team. The purpose of this team is to connect digitally to our youth in a variety of ways. We want to inform them of things happening, engage with them about Jesus and other spiritual content in a meaningful way.

This volunteer position reports to Karen Farrell

Time Commitment: Approximately 2-4 hours per week

Role Purpose:

- To pique curiosity among youth in our parish and to engage them in a manner that compliments their growth in faith.
- To help communicate the vitality of our faith and the place of the youth within it.

Key Responsibilities:

- Content Capture: Take candid photos and short-form video clips during weekly youth group and special events.
- Creating Content: Establish communication pathway to young people in a meaningful way.
- Drafting Posts: Write fun, kind, and clear captions that match the church's voice.
- Brainstorming: Help the leadership team pitch creative ideas for upcoming opportunites, events, or outreach.

What You Need:

- A positive attitude and a passion for your church community.
- Familiarity with Instagram.
- Smartphone with a decent camera or access to a digital camera (knowledge and ability to use to basic editing apps like Canva or CapCut is a plus).
- Willingness to learn and respect church communication guidelines.

Important Boundaries & Rules

- Approval First: All posts, videos, or graphics must be reviewed and approved by Karen before being posted.
- Privacy & Safety: Adhere to St. Alphonsus and the Archdiocese policies when posting youth information.
- Code of Conduct: Represent Jesus and the Church with kindness, integrity, and good judgment.
