

[Photo credit: igcs.org]

NEW INITIATIVE!!

SCORE Women's Learning Circles

Experience an online space designed for connecting and learning
at the intersection of purpose and possibilities!

What will we cover in this 6-session pilot series?

Pilot series theme: “Women Connecting to What’s Possible”

Based on the philosophy that our best self is the greatest gift we can give the world, this 6-session pilot series is designed for working women in all career stages who are ready to reflect on what's really motivating their next steps in work and life. When you engage with your purpose, or even inquire into what your purpose might be, it instills everything you do with a sense of meaning, expanding what's possible.

Using the framework for intentional change in “lifeFORWARD: Charting the Journey Ahead” by Pamela D. McLean, you will connect with and clarify three things:

- Purpose - Your WHY: What do you care about? What is the “best” use of you? What are you called to? What contribution do you want to make to your family, community, society?
- Vision – Your WHAT: Envision in your mind’s eye an overall picture for your future life. What dream will influence your actions this year? In what direction are you drawn irresistibly?
- Plan – Your HOW: Take your purpose and dream and break it down into goals, objectives, action steps, and time line.

When will we meet?

This pilot round consists of six (6) sessions held on Zoom from January 26 through April 6, 2021. Each 90-minute session meets 2x/month, every other Tuesday from 7:00 – 8:30 pm. In order to create a “cohort” experience, it is expected that you plan to attend all sessions in the series.

How much does it cost?

The special pilot series price of $59.00 includes all six (6) sessions and the reading material. Class size is limited to 20 participants. Deadline for registration: Friday, January 8, 2021.

Why Join a Women’s Learning Circle?

Connection is Key	Learning is Good for You
The Women’s Learning Circles are an interactive live-stream experience designed for women to connect deeply outside their personal network across generations. As we gather together as a cohort of supportive peers, we delve into facilitated themed discussions, interact in small groups via breakout rooms, and participate in large group sharing and practices.	Learning is self-initiated change, a discovery and awakening process, linking us to future possibilities and paths for moving ahead. At each online Zoom event we will explore topics relevant to women’s personal and professional growth by leveraging self-directed inquiry, reflection, and application practices to become the best that we can be.

About our Facilitator:

Cathy Geib, MPOD, PCC, BCC, GPCC is the founder of Authentic Focus Consulting LLC, a vision-driven executive leadership coaching practice. Her work is informed by the thought leaders in the Positive Organization Development and Change master’s degree program at Case Western Reserve University, and she holds several professional coaching certifications. Cathy's coach approach is based on creating high quality connections and building positive, collaborative work cultures. She helps her clients understand how to balance their responsibilities with trusting relationships, motivating people to give their best effort.