

Keller Williams Names New Director of Operations and Sales
Austin Morris to lead The Coffey Group Fine Homes International

VENICE, FL (1/18/2021) — The Coffey Group Fine Homes International with Keller Williams, the largest real estate franchise by agent count in the world, announced today that Austin Morris has been appointed Director of Sales and Operations for The Coffey Group Fine Homes International with Keller Williams Island Life Real Estate.

Prior to his appointment to Director of Operations and Sales, Morris served as CFO and VP of Operations for Baird Inc., a large private investment company headquartered in Sarasota, FL with ownership in over 75 companies, including a real estate investment company with over $150M in assets. Coming from this position where he managed and helped grow these seventy-five companies with experience in almost every industry. Austin is an expert in his field and knows the ins and outs of business. Austin is also the owner of Paragon Photography and Marketing. With his unique skill set and strong mind for business, Austin intends to grow The Coffey Group and Keller Williams Island Life to new heights.

We are very excited to partner with Austin Morris. We look forward to growing our concierge services and we feel confident Austin will help us serve our clients in the best way possible! The real estate market has shifted to a hot seller's market with the inventory at 1.6 months. The demand is high and people are moving to Florida in order to enjoy the warm climate, no state income tax, and beautiful sunsets!

For more information about The Coffey Group or Keller Williams, contact Austin Morris at (229) 325-3912 or visit www.TheCoffeyGroup.com.

About Keller Williams Realty, Inc.

We're #1. Holding the top spot in agent count, units and sales volume, our sales force is one to be reckoned with. Home to the Tech-Enabled Agent, our business model equips agents with a technological edge and the ability to offer customers whatever they wish.

With expertise in real estate, entrepreneurship, technology, and more, our leaders have the tools to clear a path toward success.

Our team of training experts and award-winning coaching programs go unrivaled year after year, keeping our agents at the top of their game.

At Keller Williams, we're focused on building technology that's smart and human, empowering you to be more and earn more.

Adding franchises to new countries year after year, we're proving that real estate and homeownership are universal values without bounds or borders.