

La Mom Kitchen, a Chinese Cuisine restaurant, is located in the Bridgeport neighborhood at 3312 S. Halsted. The business operator, who also owns the property, utilized the SBIF grant to complete the buildout of the restaurant. Eligible work included: the installation of a new storefront system, building an ADA-accessible ramp at the front entry, plumbing, electrical, and HVAC system improvements, framing, drywall and floor installation.

SBIF Feature: La Mom Kitchen - 35th & Halsted

BEFORE

AFTER

BEFORE

AFTER

SomerCor is a non-profit lender, certified by the Small Business Administration, that specializes in originating and servicing SBA 504 loans. SomerCor also administers the Small Business Improvement Fund (SBIF) and Neighborhood Opportunity Fund (NOF) grants for the city of Chicago.

Based in Chicago, the SomerCor mission is to grow businesses, create jobs, and increase impactful investment in every community through access to capital.