

BIOGRAPHY

Maria Cordova, MBA, SPHR, SHRM-SCP President & Founder HumangeHR

A native of California, Maria Cordova, founder of HumangeHR, has established herself as a well-respected Human Resource professional. Maria has over 10 years of proven success in building high-performance organizations through better use of human capital. Early on in her career she discovered that organizations with engaged and empowered employees are more productive and profitable.

With a Master's degree in Business Administration from Pepperdine University and a Senior Professional in Human Resources (SPHR) Certification with the HR Certification Institute, Maria is experienced in positioning companies for growth through systematic improvement.

Maria has developed and implemented successful policies and programs at start-up companies and has also led the HR department at large organizations developing them into fully-functioning, strategic business partners. Her HR leadership skills are instrumental in helping organizations navigate through the complex hurdles of employment laws, and applying best practices that better position them for success. What is most rewarding to Maria is when her clients realize the tangible, positive impact the services HumangeHR brings to their business.

Having worked with a variety of companies of various sizes and industries, Maria understands that each client is unique. "I believe what really distinguishes HumangeHR is that we provide personalized services to clients based on their specific financial, cultural and strategic environment. The flexibility we offer to clients, and the hands-on service we provide make us unique."

Aside from her passion for HR, Maria enjoys reading, exploring the outdoors with her husband and their rescue Labrador Retriever dog Quincy, traveling, hitting the gym, yoga or spin class, and volunteering for various non-profit organizations.
