

Pet of the Week

Roxy

Six-year-old Pit Mix

This is Roxy. Roxy has had a rough start in life, she is covered with scaring from her previous home. Some visible, some not. She is terrified of men, doesn't trust them. Here inside the shelter she is a nervous wreck, outside in the yard she is a totally different dog. There she is playful and happy. Roxy will need a quiet home with a patient, loving owner and no other pets. Someone will have it in their heart to adopt this tortured soul, maybe you?
