MAOPS Women in Medicine Month
Osteopathic Physician Social Media Feature

Please provide your full name with all professional acronyms including D.O. Then, answer the following questions in essay format, using first person. You do not have to use the space after the question, and can simply type something up and send it to AshleyB@maops.org, along with your headshot or favorite selfie and your Twitter and/or Facebook and/or Instagram handle.

Please include any pertinent information you would like for other female physicians or aspiring physicians to know which might inspire and move your colleagues.

Name: _____

1. What made you want to become an osteopathic physician and pursue your specialty?

2. If you had not become a D.O., what do you think you might have become?

3. What is your passion in life? What do you love to do when you are not taking care of patients?

4. What does the "D.O. Difference" mean to you?
