

THE GRAFTON HISTORICAL SOCIETY
PRESENTS:

LAKE MICHIGAN SHIPWRECKS

A ghost ship, Lake Michigan's own Titanic, a ship sunk by air pollution, a Spanish gunboat from the Spanish American war and a shipwreck connected to a civil rights murder, are just some of the fascinating stories you'll hear during James Heinz's presentation on Lake Michigan shipwrecks.

James Heinz is a retired police officer who became interested in underwater diving after watching "The Undersea World of Jacques Cousteau" in the 1970's. He dove shipwrecks in the Great Lakes until 2011 when he suffered three episodes of "the bends" and had to stop diving.
