

"The Red Arrow Division is a part of the fabric of Wisconsin and its 100-year history is a prized possession of Wisconsinites. We are grateful for all of the sacrifices made by members of this great Division in preserving our freedom."

– Maj. Brian Faltinson

Wisconsin National Guard – "Dawn of the Red Arrow" Project Coordinator

15,000 Wisconsin National Guard Soldiers answered the call.

They fought through the trenches of France and pierced the German lines.

They earned a name for themselves and brought home a legacy.

DAWN of the RED ARROW

This 81-minute film features oral histories of Red Arrow soldiers, photos, and actual footage from WWI. Produced by the Wisconsin National Guard to mark the 2019 centennial of the Red Arrow Division returning June 1919 at the end of WWI.

Sunday, November 10

Movie at 12:00 pm

ONE SHOW ONLY
FREE ADMISSION

Q & A with Maj. Brian Faltinson following movie.

Rivoli Theatre • W62N567 Washington Ave, Cedarburg

TICKETS AVAILABLE AT THE DOOR.

• •

Proudly Sponsored By:

