

Columbus KTC
Local Rule 2012.2

Attendance at Columbus KTC Board Meetings

Sangha members and friends are invited to attend board meetings. There will be a public comment period up to the first 15 minutes of the board meeting. After this period, attendees can observe but not participate in the meeting unless called upon. The board may ask attendees to leave when there is an executive session. During the executive session, the board focuses on personnel and legal matters and real estate.

This policy was adopted on June 5, 2012