

Non-Binding Ballot Propositions on 2026 Republican Primary Ballot

The non-binding ballot propositions are used to gauge voters' support for the issues presented. The results will guide the party's legislative priorities for 2027, which will be decided during the Republican Party of Texas convention in June 2026.

The measures were approved by members of the State Republican Executive Committee during their September 6 meeting by a vote of 59-3, with two abstentions.

Proposition 1

Texas property taxes should be assessed at the purchase price and phased out entirely over the next six years through spending reductions.

Proposition 2

Texas should require any local government budget that raises property taxes to be approved by voters at a November general election.

Proposition 3

Texas should prohibit denial of healthcare or any medical service based solely on the patient's vaccination status.

Proposition 4

Texas should require its public schools to teach that life begins at fertilization.

Proposition 5

Texas should ban gender, sexuality, and reproductive clinics and services in K-12 schools.

Proposition 6

Texas should enact term limits on all elected officials.

Proposition 7

Texas should ban the large-scale export or sale of our groundwater and surface water to any single private or public entity.

Proposition 8

The Texas Legislature should reduce the burden of illegal immigration on taxpayers by ending public services for illegal aliens.

Proposition 9

The Republican-controlled Texas Legislature should stop awarding leadership positions, including committee and subcommittee chairmanships and vice chairmanships, to Democrats.

Proposition 10

Texas should prohibit Sharia Law.

Texas Democrats will offer a separate list of propositions on their primary ballot. Primary Election Day is March 3, 2026. Early voting begins on February 17.
