

Zbigniew Grzyb

Zbigniew Grzyb was born in Poland and earned his Master's degree at the Academy of Fine Art in Kraków. He now lives in Farmington, Connecticut. In 2001 he was the recipient of a grant from the Pollack-Krasner Foundation.

His work has been shown in solo exhibitions at museums and galleries including the National Museum in Poland, The Cooley Gallery in Old Lyme, Brick Walk Fine Art in West Hartford, and the New Britain Museum of American Art. His work is included in the Connecticut Artists Collection among other public and private collections.