

First American Title is now open to provide settlement and title insurance services to the Vail Valley.

First American has been providing title insurance through Policy issuing agents for property in Eagle County since the early 90's and in Colorado since 1946. It has now opened an office in the Riverwalk in Edwards to provide direct title underwriting and settlement services. The office kicked off with its grand opening in July and has hit the ground running with its experienced team and is well prepared to insure and close your real estate transaction.

The local team at First American Title has many years of experience and is well equipped to handle all transactions including those that are particularly complex and high liability. Account Executive, Bob Rulon, has supported resort real estate in various leadership roles for more than 22 years and has been recognized by his peers as the recipient of the Rocky Mountain Commercial Broker Association Affiliate of the Year award as well as Eagle, Pitkin and Garfield Counties Affiliate of the Year. Escrow Officer, Laura Howe, spent 14 years as an Escrow Officer and Escrow Office Manager closing transactions on many developments in the Vail Valley including, the Bachelor Gulch lottery, Bear Ranch conservation easement and Miller Ranch. Operations Director, Adam Baker has spent his career developing and growing business and will be expanding First American's footprint throughout the valley and Western Slope.

With local underwriting decision making and local knowledge, First American can resolve title insurance issues quickly. Additionally, with offices across the country and a network of vetted and approved notaries, remote closings are simple, efficient and seamless.

First American has a people-first culture and for five years in a row has been named a Colorado Top Workplace by the Denver Post. As a company whose U.S. employee base is nearly 70 percent women, the company is most proud to have been named one of Fortune Magazines' 100 Best Workplaces for Women based on feedback from its employees. Additionally, First American Title, was named a Fortune's 100 Best Companies to work for in 2016 and is consistently given an A rating by the most respected independent rating agencies including A.M. Best, Fitch, Moody's and Standard & Poor's. First American Title is the largest subsidiary of First American Financial (NYSE: FAF), is the second largest title insurance underwriter in the country and you can rest assured that it has the financial strength to be entrusted with your most important investments.
