

For Planning Purposes
June 13, 2019

For Information, Call
Amanda Jarrett, 256-327-3836

MEDIA ADVISORY

The National Children's Advocacy Center introduces facility dog Wilson VI

Huntsville, Alabama – On Wednesday, June 19 the National Children's Advocacy Center will officially introduce our newest team member, facility dog Wilson VI. Wilson came to us last month from Canine Companions for Independence. He's spent the last 30 days adjusting to his new home and learning about his new job.

We hope you can join us for his first official public event!

WHEN: Wednesday, June 19 at 11:15 a.m.

WHERE: National Children's Advocacy Center, 210 Pratt Avenue, Huntsville. Meet in the lobby of the Community Building.

CONTACT: NCAC Marketing Manager Amanda Jarrett, ajarrett@nationalcac.org, 256-327-3836

About the National Children's Advocacy Center

The mission of the National Children's Advocacy Center (NCAC) is to Model, Promote, and Deliver Excellence in Child Abuse Response and Prevention through Service, Education, and Leadership. The NCAC is the birthplace of the Children's Advocacy Center (CAC) model; and since opening its doors 35 years ago has served as a model for more than 1,000 CAC's operating in all 50 states and in 33 countries. In addition to providing local services to children and families, the NCAC is one of the leading global organizations providing training and technical assistance to child abuse response professionals. More than 158,000 child abuse professionals from all 50 states and 179 countries have been trained by the NCAC with international training and technical assistance focusing on development of national policies providing for the protection of children, implementation of the multidisciplinary response (CAC) model for child abuse, and development of national training programs.