

Convention Updates

as of April 15, 2020

The conference will be 100% virtual.

- The convention will be July 7-10 as planned
- Save money & time – no travel or hotel accommodations needed
- New opportunities for interaction and networking
- View more sessions and rewatch your favorites
- Extended access to all content
- Our virtual platform is being hosted by the same app developer we've been using so it will be very familiar and easy to navigate

NPM 43rd Annual Convention • July 7-10, 2020

Galt House reservations have been cancelled and deposits will be refunded.

- Cancellation notification will be sent to the email you used at reservation and should be received within 10 days.
- If an email has not been received by April 30, please contact the hotel directly. Be aware that all cancellations must be processed by May 30 for a refund.

Our virtual convention will provide prayer, learning, gathering and community.

- Prayer opportunities - live presentations - breakouts - group discussions - showcases and product resources - concerts - exhibits - and more!

Our next convention update will be released on April 21.

- It will include pricing info, program content, information regarding institutes/intensives and more.

Registration will re-open on April 21.

- Already registered for this year's convention? No need to re-register!

