I became frum during high school through my involvement in NCSY, and this transformation has profoundly shaped my personal and professional journey. During my time in high school, I participated in several volunteer and community outreach initiatives, including the NFTY-Institute Award, where I had the opportunity to engage in Tikkun Olam through the NFTY in Israel program. This experience allowed me to serve at the Lone Soldier Center, wrap birthday gifts for Israeli children in need, and sing for elderly residents at a senior center, all while immersing myself in Jewish spirituality during the Hebrew Union College retreat.

I also interned with Chabad of Merrick, where I assisted with outreach efforts and community programming. In addition to my leadership role as Treasurer for Hofstra Hillel, I participated in Jewish Moot Court, applying Jewish law to current issues and enriching my understanding of Jewish legal ethics. I also had the privilege of serving the Jewish community by volunteering with organizations like the Jewish Federation of Greater Indianapolis, where I helped collect funds for various causes, and as a volunteer in the Avodah program at the URJ Goldman Union Camp Institute, where I contributed to camp maintenance and Jewish programming.L

> As a major in Jewish Studies and a minor in Human Services, I gained a comprehensive understanding of Jewish law, culture, and history, as well as the tools to support and advocate for communities in need. These academic experiences were complemented by my involvement in a variety of volunteer and outreach initiatives, such as the Purim Carnival helper at IHC, Family Promise at IHC, and participating in the Hydrocephalus Walk and YouTube Channel. My role in the Student to Student program, where Jewish students share their experiences with non-Jewish peers to combat anti-Semitism, also speaks to my commitment to fostering understanding and bridging cultural divides

I am particularly drawn to the Jewish Pro-Life Foundation's mission to provide a Torah-based pro-life voice and offer vital support to the Jewish community. I believe that my background in Jewish studies, my experience with Jewish community outreach, and my passion for promoting Jewish values would enable me to contribute meaningfully to your efforts. I am eager to bring my organizational, communication, and outreach skills to the Foundation and support its important work.

I would be honored to be considered for this internship opportunity and look forward to discussing how my experiences can contribute to the Jewish Pro-Life Foundation's mission. Thank you for your time and consideration.

Warm regards,

Nelle Bargeron
