

The Baltimore County Farm Bureau Distinguished Service Award

Rules & Qualifications

1. The Baltimore County Farm Bureau's award for distinguished service is given in recognition of outstanding service in the interest of Farm Bureau and agriculture.
2. Nominations for the award may be made by members in good standing of BCFB. Current officers and employees of Farm Bureau are not eligible for nomination. The award will not be presented posthumously, nor will it be presented to an organization.
3. Nominees must be Baltimore County Farm Bureau members who have contributed to the betterment of the organization and the industry at the county, state, or national level.
4. The nomination should include name, address, phone number, and qualifications for the nominee and the individual nominating.
5. Award winners will be selected only from nominations made in the current year. However, nominations made in previous years may be resubmitted.
6. This award may be awarded once per year during the annual banquet as qualified recipients are identified.

The Baltimore County Farm Bureau Distinguished Service Award applications shall be judged by a panel to consist of two previous BCFB presidents and the MFB field staff representative for Baltimore County.
