FEATURED SPEAKERS

Jacob Scheiner
Director, Upstate New York

Jacob Scheiner, AIPAC's Upstate New York Director, is tasked with the implementation and expansion of pro-Israel development and political activities in the Upstate region. Jacob recruits and trains AIPAC members on how to build effective relationships with their elected officials, regularly communicates AIPAC's legislative priorities, and educates activists on relevant policy issues. Prior to AIPAC, Jacob served as Campaign Manager and congressional aide to Congressman Tom Suozzi (NY-3).

Yael Rein
Venture Tech Director, Northeast Region

Yael Rein is AIPAC's Venture Tech Director based in the North East region. In that position, Yael has worked with tech leaders in the United States and Israel to showcase how Israeli technology plays an important role in deepening the U.S.-Israel relationship. Yael has organized and lead numerous programs focused on different aspects of the Israeli innovation ecosystem, ranging from AIPAC's national Venture Tech video conference calls to SharkUp Nation, hosted both at Policy Conference and New York, featuring early stage startups.

Yael received her BA from The George Washington University, majoring in international affairs and minoring in music.
