

50 Million Scouts are making the world's largest coordinated youth contribution to the SDGs.

This is an action-oriented approach to education uniquely designed to equip young people with the competencies to be active citizens and contribute to sustainable development.

Explore the goals and to-do lists. Find out how you can get involved. Track the projects happening around the world.

Goals like no poverty, clean water, quality education, life on land and below water, and more.

Explore the Goals

