

An Evening With GABY MORENO

Attention all members of Super District 6400. If you are registered to attend our upcoming District Conference, your ticket to this concert is part of your package. No need to take action as your ticket will be on your conference badge.

If you are not attending the district conference and have friends, family or fellow club members who would like to attend the concert on Friday, May 30th – this is a special “EXCLUSIVE OFFER” before tickets are made available to the public on April 25, 2025. At that time remaining tickets will open to the general public.

Here is your private link to the event for your friends and family. This takes you to the Capitol Theatre Box Office: <https://ci.ovationtix.com/36210/performance/11618587>

gaby moreno

"As a Rotary Ambassador with deep personal connections to its members, I want to help spread the word about this remarkable organization that's giving hope to so many children around the globe."

Born in Guatemala City, Gaby Moreno is a Grammy-winning singer-songwriter celebrated for her soulful blend of blues, jazz, R&B, and Latin influences. Singing in both English and Spanish, she captivates audiences with her heartfelt lyrics and versatile voice. Since moving to Los Angeles in 2001, Gaby has earned international acclaim, including a Grammy for “X Mí (Vol. 1)”, and a Latin Grammy for Best New Artist. Her music reflects her Guatemalan roots while embracing global sounds, making her a true musical chameleon and cultural ambassador.

Opening for Gaby Moreno are award-winning members of The S'Aints, a Canadian rock band of legend known for their energetic performances and philanthropic efforts. Founded by Jody Raffoul and Jeff Burrows, and joined by Kelly Hoppe and Dave Cyrenne, they blend their legendary classic rock influence to raise funds for local charities, most notably concerts that support food insecurity.

