

The Vice-Principal Research (VPR) Portfolio is proud to present

RESOURCES 4 RESEARCH @QUEEN'S

Queen's greatly values the incredible contributions of our researchers and their teams on the local, national and international stages. But you are not alone! Queen's offers a myriad of services to help researchers develop the best possible roadmap to success from project conception through to knowledge mobilization. To learn more, please join us for R4R@Q!

R4R@Q is here to acquaint Queen's researchers with the resources and people who are here to help
