

WICKED IDEAS COMPETITION #2

DEADLINES

Notice of Intent Deadline: January 6, 2021
Full Applications Deadline: February 12, 2021
Presentation/Pitch of Wicked Idea: End of March 2021

Notice of Intent

Notice of Intent applicants will receive an invitation to complete the University Equity Survey to assist with integration of Equity, Diversity and Inclusion considerations into internal funding programs. Each team must be led by two co-investigators one of whom must be an early career researcher*, and co-investigators must be Queen's faculty (tenured, tenure-track or clinicians with protected research time). Faculty members are limited to applying as a co-investigator to one team; faculty can be team members on a maximum of two proposals. Other team members may be external to Queen's University and can include adjuncts, research associates, students, post-doctoral fellows, community partners, etc.

Co-investigator #1
Name:
Email address:
Department:
*Early Career Researcher:

Co-investigator #2
Name:
Email address:
Department:
*Early Career Researcher:

within 10 years of first academic appointment

Proposed project title and five keywords describing area of work:
---	--

List remaining team members, if applicable, including department/affiliation:
---	--

Check the box to confirm both co-investigators hold Tri-Council funding or have applied for Tri-Council funding within the last two years

Select the stream to which you are applying:

Interdisciplinary Stream (team members are collaborators from multiple disciplines)

Discipline Specific Stream (team members are collaborators from within a given discipline)

Please submit the Notice of Intent via email to research@queensu.ca.