

50-plus retired clergy Rev'd Up group gathers

Rev'd Up, the retired Presbyterian ministers and spouses group, brought together 51 retired clergy and spouses on Thursday, April 30, at Westminster Presbyterian Church in Minneapolis.

The Westminster Town Hall Forum graciously hosted our group and reserved a front section of the sanctuary for us to listen to featured speaker Barbara Brown Taylor, Episcopal priest, college professor, and author. After the forum, our group gathered over a catered lunch and conversation in the Meisel Room.

The idea to piggy back onto the Town Hall Forum for our spring event was suggested by Peter Nord. David Liddle and Denise Dunbar Perkins coordinated the meal with the caterer. Gene Orr helped with registration. The planning group that organizes a spring and fall get together each year is composed of Anita Cummings, Jim Brasel, Cal Cooper, Heidi Bolt, Clint Patterson, Gale Robb, Terry Roos and Pete Wyckoff. Please contact any of them with questions or suggestions.

Our group wants to express its appreciation to Westminster Presbyterian Church, The Westminster Town Hall Forum, and the Presbytery of the Twin Cities Area for working with us to help us strengthen our connections with each other and the presbytery.

Mark your calendars for the fall gathering of Rev' Up, on Tuesday, September 24, at Presbyterian Church of the Way in Shoreview.
