

Keynote Speaker: Grace Ji-Sun Kim is an Associate Professor of Religion at the Earlham School of Religion and author of sixteen books, including Intersectional Theology: An Introductory Guide and The Homebrewed Christianity Guide to the Holy Spirit. gracejisunkim.wordpress.com

Musician & Spiritual Leader: Sara Thomsen In addition to her solo work, Sara is a weaver of song and community singing. www.sarathomsen.com

In addition to experiences with Grace and Sara your time at ConNext will include:

- Vibrant and topical workshops
- Innovative Spirit-filled worship experiences
- Opportunities for shared spiritual practices
- Free time to relax and simply be
- A copy of one of Grace Ji-Sun Kim's books
- Community meals throughout the event
- Hospitality events on Sunday and Monday that will include delicious hors d'oeuvres and the opportunity to relax and converse with other participants, event speakers, and workshop leaders
- The opportunity to dine together at a local Buffalo restaurant before leaving for home on Tuesday

NEW THIS YEAR - FREE! FREE! FREE!

Our Sunday evening activities will be open to any and all ministry team members whom you can encourage to attend – clergy, staff, and lay people will be warmly welcomed AT NO COST.

Registration is Now Open at connextsummit.org

Early Bird Registration through August 31, 2019

Average Worship Attendance over 125: $225

Average Worship Attendance 125 or less: $150

Commuter (does not include lodging): $150

After August 31, 2019 add $50 to all of the above categories

For questions: Lizabeth Bougie, Director of the Resource Center for Churches, director@rcc-mn.org

Resource Center for Churches
equipping communities for vibrant ministry